Re: 2:14-cv-00024-JWS - Connolly, et al. v. Roche, et al.
Chambers' copy of Plaintiffs' Motion for Summary Judgment
(hyperlinked disc)

Dear Judge Sedwick:

The enclosed disc contains Plaintiffs' Motion for Summary Judgment ~ Memorandum of Law and Statement of Facts, with hyperlinks to the exhibits and authorities.

After inserting the disc into your computer's CD/DVD drive, the documents will come up in the folder named "Chambers Copy." When you click on that folder, you will see the main pleading, entitled "_MSJ-MOL 140421." Please double click on the main pleading and it will open up Plaintiffs' Motion for Summary Judgment ~ Memorandum of Law. Citations to case law, supplemental pleadings, and exhibits are marked with a blue underline. If you click on the link, the referenced case or exhibit will open up on your screen and, in most instances, scroll to the pincited section.

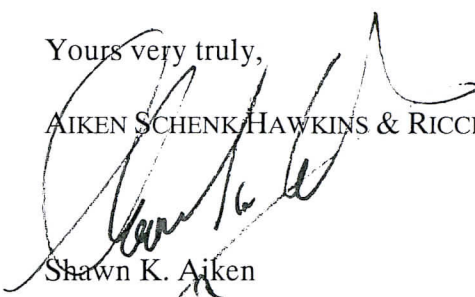

When you wish to return to the pleading, hold down the "Alt" key and tap the left arrow key twice. The first tap will move you to the first page of the linked document, and the second will take you back to the place where you left off in the pleading. After viewing an exhibit in the Statement of Facts, you will have to repeat this step in order to return to the main Memorandum of Law.
